FORMAL WRITTEN ALLEGATION UNDER SECTION D, RULES 11 AND 2 OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS CODE OF CONDUCT

Dear Mr Greenberg,

I am sending this formal allegation by hard-copy post because a subsequent email sent to the published address, standardscommissioner@parliament.uk, was rejected with the following delivery response:

550 Undeliverable mail
Reference: f77NfYaUPKiuDmwmCuOvWA.uk403

On 30 July 2026 at approximately 9:36 PM, I sent my substantive complaint to your published email address with the attachment entitled:

2026-07-30 - MP Sent Email Log.pdf

I ask that this letter be treated as:

1. a formal written allegation concerning Members of Parliament under the numbered rules identified below; and
2. a separate service complaint concerning the accessibility and operation of the Office of the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards' published complaints channel.

Numbered Code provisions relied upon

Primary allegation: Section D, Rule 11

Rule 11 provides that Members must not undertake action causing significant damage to the reputation and integrity of the House of Commons as a whole, or of its Members generally.

I recognise that ordinary dissatisfaction with an MP's casework, correspondence or decision not to assist would not ordinarily fall within the Commissioner's jurisdiction.

This submission concerns something materially wider.

It concerns a documented pattern in which MPs and parliamentary offices have relied upon expressions including:

- "parliamentary privilege";
- "strict parliamentary protocol";
- "parliamentary rules";
- "constituency rules"; and
- "constituency convention"

as reasons for declining to address, refer or properly signpost an unresolved safeguarding and traceability concern involving Emily Newbold.

In a number of instances, these expressions have been presented as though they amounted to legislation or a formal prohibition. However:

- Parliament's own procedural guidance states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers; and
- the House of Commons Library states that constituency-etiquette conventions are not formal parliamentary rules.

Despite repeated requests, I have not been provided with the precise Act of Parliament, Standing Order, resolution of the House, Code provision or other formal authority said to prohibit an MP from receiving safeguarding information, acknowledging it, referring it to a responsible authority or providing accurate safeguarding signposting.

I allege that the widespread presentation of a convention as a legal or parliamentary prohibition, particularly in response to an unresolved safeguarding concern, is capable of causing significant damage to public confidence in the integrity of the House and its Members generally.

Alternative or additional allegation: Section D, Rule 2

Rule 2 requires Members to base their conduct on consideration of the public interest.

The evidence raises the question of whether the public interest was properly considered when parliamentary offices relied upon procedural explanations instead of addressing or referring the following unanswered questions:

- Where is Emily Newbold?
- Which educational establishment is she attending?
- Which authority is responsible for her welfare?
- What is her safeguarding status?
- Through which education, health or social-care system can she presently be traced?

- Which public authority can verify that she is safe?

The safeguarding concern began while Emily was a child. The fact that she may now be treated as an adult does not retrospectively resolve the safeguarding failures or answer the continuing questions about her location, welfare and traceability.

I therefore ask the Commissioner to consider Rule 2 alongside Rule 11 where the evidence demonstrates conduct by an identified Member, rather than merely a decision by an office not to undertake ordinary constituency casework.

Evidence supplied

The accompanying evidence report contains 6,356 transmission-log records across the relevant correspondence campaigns.

For each campaign, the report provides:

- the sending-page URL;
- the associated sent-log CSV;
- one copy of the correspondence;
- the MP names and addresses used;
- constituency details where available;
- the physical CSV log-line number;
- the date and time recorded in the relevant log; and
- whether the transmission was recorded as sent or failed.

I do not suggest that every logged record proves that an individual MP personally read or approved an office response. I ask that the Commissioner distinguish carefully between:

- successful transmissions;
- failed attempts;
- automated acknowledgements;
- constituency notices;
- office responses; and
- substantive replies attributable to an identified Member or office.

The records nevertheless demonstrate the scale of the matter and provide an auditable route to the underlying correspondence.

Compliance with the Procedural Protocol

The published Procedural Protocol requires an allegation to be submitted in writing and to contain:

- the complainant's full name and postal address;
- a clear explanation identifying the numbered Code rule allegedly breached; and
- the available supporting evidence.

This signed hard-copy submission provides those matters.

The Protocol also states that where an allegation is not accepted, the complainant should be given brief reasons addressing whether:

- there was insufficient evidence;
- an investigation would be disproportionate; or
- the matter fell outside the Commissioner's remit.

I ask that any decision address Rule 11 and Rule 2 separately, rather than categorising the entire submission merely as dissatisfaction with casework.

Failure of the published email channel

On the morning of 31 July 2026, I contacted Parliament after receiving the 550 undeliverable response.

During that call, a Parliamentary Contact Centre representative suggested that my address might have been automatically blocked because of the number of emails previously sent. The representative also made clear that this was a guess and that they were not part of the Commissioner's office.

I do not present that suggestion as proof that my address was deliberately blocked.

I request that the Commissioner's office establish the facts by preserving and examining the relevant email-system records, including:

- whether my 30 July submission was received;
- whether its PDF attachment was retained;
- why the subsequent message received a 550 rejection;
- whether a sender restriction, rate limit or security filter was applied;
- whether the rejection affected only my address or the mailbox generally; and
- whether any part of my complaint or evidence was lost.

Because Parliament's published procedure requires complaints to be submitted in writing, the published email channel must operate sufficiently reliably for members of the public to submit allegations and evidence.

Action requested

I respectfully request that you:

1. Register this letter as a formal written allegation and provide a reference number.
2. Confirm whether my email of 30 July 2026 and its PDF attachment were received and retained.
3. Conduct a preliminary assessment under Section D, Rule 11.

4. Consider Section D, Rule 2 where the evidence concerns an identified Member's conduct rather than ordinary casework discretion.
5. Treat the email-delivery failure as a separate service complaint and provide a written technical and procedural explanation.
6. Preserve the relevant email gateway, rejection, filtering and mailbox records.
7. Where the full evidence set is considered too broad for one assessment, identify the format in which representative named cases should be submitted rather than rejecting the entire matter without examining the documented pattern.
8. Where you decide not to initiate an investigation, provide the brief reasons required by the Procedural Protocol and state whether the decision is based upon remit, sufficiency of evidence or proportionality.
9. Identify any alternative parliamentary body to which the systemic issue should be referred if you determine that it falls outside your jurisdiction.
10. Confirm that the accompanying evidence and this letter will be retained on the formal complaint record.

The central safeguarding questions remain unanswered:

Where is Emily Newbold, and which public authority can verify that she is safe?

I look forward to receiving confirmation of receipt, a formal reference number and an indication of when a substantive response will be provided.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Newbold

Enclosures:

1. 2026-07-30 - MP Sent Email Log.pdf
2. Copy of the 550 undeliverable notice
3. Transcript of the Parliamentary Contact Centre call
4. Schedule of representative MP responses
5. Copy of the email sent on 30 July 2026

The published postal address above is the Commissioner's official address, and hard-copy allegations are expressly accepted.

I would leave the threats to contact police or publish the call out of the covering letter. Attach the complete transcript as evidence, but keep the letter focused on the rejection, the staff member's unverified explanation and the request for the technical records.

CASE SUMMARY: THE STEALING OF EMILY NEWBOLD-SMITH
URGENT: ALLEGATIONS OF SERIOUS PUBLIC MISCONDUCT, FALSIFICATION OF EVIDENCE, AND DENIAL OF JUSTICE

1. BASIC CASE DETAILS

- Subject: Emily Newbold-Smith
- Date of Birth: 30 October 2006
- Age when removed: 4 years old
- Year of removal: 2009
- Current status: Whereabouts unknown for 19 years
- Original court: Hastings Family Court, before Judge Hollis
- Key official named: Social Worker Christine Elizabeth Stirling

2. WHAT HAPPENED

In 2009, my daughter Emily was removed from my care under family court proceedings. Authorities claimed she was placed with family in Northern Ireland, using a fabricated genogram/genealogy to assert non-existent family links there.

Since then:

- Social Work Northern Ireland has NO record whatsoever of Emily being placed or residing there
- Emily's name has been removed from the NHS national database
- East Sussex Council refuses to disclose any placement, adoption, or contact records
- All four appeals against the original ruling have failed
- I have published 8 books compiling evidence of these irregularities, and assembled a 300+ page dossier of proof

3. SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS OF WRONGDOING

1. Perjury & false evidence: Social worker Christine Elizabeth Stirling lied under oath; her written case notes directly contradict her court testimony
2. Fabricated official documents: The family tree/genogram used to justify placement in Northern Ireland was entirely false, with no basis in fact
3. Alteration/withholding of records: Official NHS, council, and court files have been redacted, removed, or blocked without legal authority
4. Misconduct by public bodies: Multiple authorities have refused to investigate clear inconsistencies, and have colluded to suppress evidence
5. Dereliction of duty: MPs and oversight bodies have failed to act on repeated formal complaints

4. EVIDENCE ON FILE

This summary is supported by 300+ pages of attached material:
- Transcripts and notes from original court hearings
- Comparisons of false genealogy vs true family records
- Written confirmations from Northern Ireland authorities that no placement exists
- Proof of Emily's removal from NHS systems
- Records of unanswered complaints to police, councils, and MPs
- Witness statements and documentary proof of altered evidence

5. EXACTLY WHAT I AM REQUESTING

1. Log this as a formal investigation case with a unique reference number
2. Order the immediate release of all sealed court files, social work records, and placement documents relating to Emily
3. Launch an independent criminal investigation into allegations of perjury, falsification of official documents, and public misconduct
4. Locate Emily Newbold-Smith and confirm her safety and whereabouts
5. Provide written acknowledgement of receipt within 7 working days, and a formal update within 28 days

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

Dear Member of Parliament,

I am forwarding this email to you

Where is Emily Newbold

I am writing to receive the information that all roads in this country have problems and political issues end with the ineptness of our government. I would like to know when we will have a government that will break the trend and stop thieving and taking money (Corruption children)?

Yours sincerely,

Martin Newbold

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

Subject: Urgent Intervention

Dear Member of Parliament,

Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention

About Emily - https://stealingofemily.world/about/

Please note that if no response is received within 20 working days, I will record this as a failure to confirm whether Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 is known, recorded, represented, safeguarded, placed, educated, treated, registered, or otherwise traceable within your relevant county systems.

Any refusal, non-response, partial response, or internal forwarding record may be disclosed to police and other statutory bodies as part of the wider missing-person, safeguarding, and records-tracing enquiry.

Please note there is a current Sussex Epstein investigation into her disappearance for 19 years ago at age four. Police call record — 20 May 2026

On 20 May 2026 at 9:45am, I received/spoke on a call from a private number connected to the police. The call lasted 30 minutes and 14 seconds.

I spoke to Elen, badge number 18592. She informed me that the information I had provided would be placed before Inspector 40550.

This should now be treated as a formal record of disclosure made to the police and should be referenced in any follow-up correspondence.

Uk Government figures show that 753,000 children in 2025 did not receive their child trust fund and are not at the same location. In 2020 the NSPCC Briefing Guide denotes that half a million vulnerable and disabled children are in care. Does this signal that Social services care is fundamentally flawed as neither the Government nor Social services know where this cohort that includes my daughter Emily is?

Shadow-ban video correspondence

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

Subject: Urgent Intervention

Dear Member of Parliament,

Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention

About Emily - https://stealingofemily.world/about/

Dear MP,

Immediate explanation required: shadow-banning of MP correspondence

I require an immediate explanation as to why my correspondence appears to be being shadow-banned.

My video, Run Children Run Run Run by Martin Newbold, concerns my missing daughter, Emily, and wider safeguarding, Department for Education, police disclosure, and inter-agency record issues.

https://www.stealingofemily.world/Youtoob/yt_play/index.php?id=v309&group=1&list=The+Stealing+of+Emily&playlist=The+Stealing+of+Emily

For the record: I have contacted 640 MPs regarding my missing daughter, Emily, and I have received a reply from each MP. This matter is now also part of my complaint to the Department for Education.

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

Subject: Urgent Intervention

Dear Member of Parliament,

Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention

About Emily - https://stealingofemily.world/about/

Dear Memeber of Parliament,

Immediate explanation required: shadow-banning of MP correspondence

Department for Education communications have informed me that my daughter Emily is in care until the age of 25, and have also indicated that she is connected to a school in Tonbridge, Kent.

At the same time, previous NHS correspondence indicates that Emily is not locatable on the NHS system through normal reasonable searches.

This creates an urgent safeguarding and records contradiction: one public authority appears to indicate that Emily is known within education/care arrangements, while NHS records appear unable to locate her.

I am asking Members of Parliament to intervene with the Department for Education and require a clear written answer confirming where Emily Newbold is recorded, which authority is responsible, and what safeguarding action has been taken to verify her location and welfare.

• whether Emily Newbold is currently known to any education, care, safeguarding, looked-after-child, virtual school, SEND, post-18, or care-leaver system;

• whether any record links her to Tonbridge, Kent;

• which authority currently holds responsibility for her welfare, records, or safeguarding status;

• why NHS systems appear unable to locate her; and

• what immediate safeguarding verification has been undertaken.

MP Evidence Pack Images - numbered sequence
I am in communication with Surrey Police who is deciding if my daughters mising status is connected to Epstein as this a Police investigation. I expect you to comply.

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

• Children Act 2004
• Care Act 2014
• Working Together to Safeguard Children guidance

Where is Emily? You seem sycophantic towards my child Emily causing much family discrimination and duress. Where is the dignity in such statements which you provided? I demand higher handling of the entire case, given the deplorable and deeply far-reaching error / mistakes being made complicated out of feasible proportions.

This is now a case of human misery and baseless removal of inherited rights needing to be heard by the proper authorities and also needing accurate forensic recording/ detailing the readiness for review by the UK Government new Home Secretary. Your two letters do not address or answer points of concern. I hope you will resolve these concerns at your earliest opportunity. I also point out there is no empathy in your two letters or any indication that you are impartial. Quite clearly your process and procedures has alienated my daughter from her blood inheritance family when you are supposed to have provided court awarded contact. You have not provided a care plan then coercing my child Emily not to write to her biological pure blood family.

Further to your referral to the DFE does not have denominators and comparability, and does not appear to safeguard children, and my child or any child with meaningful data. When I asked, "If understanding the statistic requires population denominators that are not shown alongside the headline figures, how is the public supposed to interpret the data correctly?" The ONS reply didn't engage with that. It simply told you who owns the care statistics and nobody addresses the underlying point. I asked a question that was essentially: "How can the public understand these care statistics without the population data?" you replied "We don't hold the care statistics. Contact DfE."

The DFE data presentation is misleading because it reports increases in headline numbers without giving equal prominence to the child-population denominator used as the index. Without showing the starting population base and rate calculation, the reader cannot tell whether the change reflects more children being affected, population growth, a recording change, or a real change in risk.

From my perspective, the pattern becomes:

ONS -> Contact DfE
DfE -> Different team
Statistics -> Methodology document
Methodology -> Different dataset
Dataset -> Different release
Release -> Updated URL
and nobody addresses the underlying point.

I found that the 590,920 / half a million figure was not a recent invention.
I pushed it back to a September 2022 letter.
I found that you were already arguing with ONS in June 2023 about denominators and population bases.
I found that the NSPCC URL now points to a later version than the one you originally cited.
The DFE does not have denominators and comparability, and does not appear to safeguard children?
That's not a complete answer, but it is progress. Before today, the trail looked lost. Now I * know the trail existed in 2022 and was still being discussed in 2023.

Looking just at the material I've shown over the last hour, there is a recurring pattern:

You find a statistic.
You trace it back to a source.
The source URL now points somewhere else.
The filename is the same.
The organisation that has the numerator tells you to speak to the organisation with the denominator.
The organisation with the denominator tells you to speak to the organisation with the numerator.
Years later you're trying to reconstruct exactly what document you were looking at in 2022 or 2023.
From my perspective, that feels like running in circles.

If regulations require children's behavioural and emotional needs to be met, positive relationships to be maintained, and relevant plans to be followed, how is compliance measured when court-ordered family contact is absent?

What is actually being counted?
What is the denominator?
Has the definition changed?
Are the categories overlapping?
Can the same source be verified years later?
For the record: I have contacted 640 MPs regarding my missing daughter, Emily, and I have received a reply from each MP. This matter is now also part of my complaint to the Department for Education.

"748,000 × 79% = 590,920 — approximately half a million children."
This has sadly resulted in children been compromised with mental heath conditions and placed in Northern Ireland in a stigma of what is in England called CDC. In Northern Ireland they are called SEN of which in 2019 from this NSPCC briefing it was released information in relation to children in Northern Ireland of 748,000 children under the age of 18 were in care 40% had been diagnosed with behavioral problems and 35% with emotional problems a 21% with depression and anxiety. It is stated that this measure is important because it highlights the need for mental health support for looked after children. If mental health needs are unmet, it can increase the child's risk of a variety of poor outcomes, including placement instability and poor educational attained (Bazalgette, Rahilly, Trevelyan 2015.). Of these 748,000 then 79% were reported as being in Kinship care. which is a staggering figure of 590,920 approximately half a million children!

NSPCC briefing → Northern Ireland under-18 figure / care-related statistics → 79% kinship care → your derived 590,920 figure → "approximately half a million children."
That explains why searching 500,000 failed. The actual figure in the text is 590,920, and "half a million" is written as prose at the end of the paragraph.
Page | 98 social services, who operated this clandestine abduction of children from their families many who had done nothing more than fight for custody. But what these families did not know was an over zealous social services system was in place where social worker s could routinely lie in court without any redress of the matter in complaints put in place by the then Lord Chief Justice Mathew Alexander Thorpe to block any examination of nom de plume evidence. This has sadly resulted in children been compromised with mental heath conditions and placed in Northern Ireland in a stigma of what is in England called CDC. CHILD LAUNDERING LEGALLY is institutionally happening and is notarized in a document by bpress dated 2005 who produced a legal paper number 749 called 'Child Laundering: How the Intercountry Adoption System Legitimizes and Incentivizes the abduction and kindanp of children.

No misunderstanding can now exist that these matters have been formally raised.

I look forward to your urgent response.

Surrey Police safeguarding correspondence

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

For the Attention of:
Chief Constable / Professional Standards Department
Sussex Police and Surrey Police

For the attention of {{MP_NAME}} Member of Parliament (United Kingdom), I request preservation of the audit trail, classification results, routing decisions, escalation actions, safeguarding flags, manager-review actions, case notes, internal referrals, workflow history, and user-access logs associated with this correspondence.

Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention

About Emily - https://stealingofemily.world/about/

Dear Chief Constable,

I write with reference to communication with Surrey Police Ellen Badge No 18592 and information placed before Inspector Badge No 40550.

This correspondence constitutes formal notice of serious safeguarding concerns and a documented failure to act upon information already placed before your force.

This correspondence is intentionally labelled for safeguarding, formal complaint, manager review, and audit-trail preservation purposes. It is not an attempt to bypass any system, but to ensure the nature of the concern is accurately recorded and routed.

A comprehensive documentary dossier has now been distributed to Members of Parliament to ensure independent oversight, preservation of chronology, and public accountability concerning these safeguarding matters.

Statutory Safeguarding Duties

The concerns raised engage statutory safeguarding obligations under, including but not limited to:

• Children Act 2004
• Care Act 2014
• Working Together to Safeguard Children guidance

Your force holds a clear public duty to assess, investigate, record, and appropriately respond where safeguarding concerns involving vulnerable individuals are raised.

The evidence already provided demonstrates repeated notifications, documented chronology, and continued failures to properly engage with the substance of those concerns.

Professional Standards and Potential Misconduct

The repeated failure to meaningfully act upon safeguarding disclosures, despite sustained notice and supporting documentation, now requires immediate Professional Standards assessment.

I require the Professional Standards Department to determine whether the conduct, omissions, delays, or failures by relevant officers amount to misconduct in public office and/or breaches of safeguarding obligations expected of public officers exercising police powers and responsibilities.

For clarity, this notice specifically concerns:

"Parliamentary protocol may limit individual representation, but it does not justify ignoring or failing to refer a safeguarding concern."

Parliament’s own safeguarding page says: “Safeguarding is everyone’s responsibility.” cite: https://www.parliament.uk/visiting/access/safeguarding-on-the-parliamentary-estate/

Parliamentary protocol may limit direct constituency representation, but Parliament’s own safeguarding position is that safeguarding is everyone’s responsibility. A safeguarding disclosure should therefore be recorded, referred, or passed to the appropriate authority, not simply dismissed as ordinary non-constituency casework.

• failure to appropriately engage with safeguarding disclosures;
• failure to adequately assess documentary evidence;
• failure to provide proportionate safeguarding responses; and
• failure to properly address matters repeatedly brought to the attention of the force.

I require DfE to provide a reconciliation table showing whether the 500,000 cohort, the 758,000 cohort, and the children recorded as “moved on” are identical, overlapping, or separate cohorts, and to name the system and officer responsible for confirming each child’s current traceability status.

This is no longer capable of being treated as bureaucratic failure. Where children remain untraced after repeated safeguarding notice, and authorities refuse to name responsibility or provide a traceability route, the matter must be investigated as suspected child sexual exploitation, institutional concealment, and criminal safeguarding failure.

“If people with power were repeatedly warned about child safeguarding and traceability concerns and chose not to act, then the failure is so serious that it cannot be brushed aside as mere incompetence.”

If 640 MPs were notified of a child traceability and safeguarding concern and none provided a substantive safeguarding route, named officer, referral, or protective action, then Parliament has collectively failed its safeguarding function. That failure must be treated as potential institutional complicity, concealment, or gross neglect until properly investigated.

Their failure to answer a child traceability and safeguarding question after notice is now evidence of obstruction, concealment, or institutional non-compliance, and must be investigated.

I allege a direct cause-and-effect safeguarding concern: Epstein-linked access networks entered UK political institutions through Mandelson and Blair-era Labour channels, continued into later Labour/Treasury access, and coincided with unresolved mass child traceability failures. The state must now disclose the records and prove there is no connection.

https://www.reuters.com/world/uk/uk-probe-into-charles-brother-andrew-mandelson-likely-take-over-year-top-2026-06-04/https://www.thetimes.com/uk/politics/article/peter-mandelson-files-meetings-global-counsel-treasury-b0rbnvk8p https://www.reuters.com/world/uk/uk-releases-second-batch-files-mandelsons-appointment-us-ambassador-2026-06-01/
What did Starmer/Labour know, when did they know it, what checks were done on Lord Alli, and has anyone independently reviewed the risk?

“Where a major political donor is reportedly named in Epstein-related material, the issue is not automatic guilt. The issue is whether that donor relationship created influence, access, or dependency — and whether proper due diligence was carried out before money, access, appointments, honours, or political proximity were accepted.”

Sexed-up reports are not imaginary. Parliament recorded a Daily Express report alleging social workers were “sexing up dossiers” to get care orders.
https://publications.parliament.uk/pa/cm201012/cmselect/cmeduc/uc1514iv/uc1514iv.htm

DfE is a responsible department for children's social care reform. Its own memorandum says government was reforming social work through the Child Protection Implementation Taskforce. https://www.parliament.uk/documents/commons-committees/Education/Department-for-Education-memorandum-on-social-work-reform.pdf

The law around parental contact has changed/been challenged. The government announced repeal of the presumption that contact with both parents is automatically in a child's best interests, following concerns about harm in family courts. https://www.theguardian.com/uk-news/2025/oct/21/family-law-shift-hailed-as-victory-for-children-facing-domestic-abuse

Does this not sound like state sanctioned abduction of children?

"Given known concerns about sexed-up reports, family-court secrecy, DfE responsibility, and disputed child-contact law, I require the responsible public authority to explain Emily's traceability status and whether these cohorts overlap."

Required Action

If Emily Newbold is within any MP's constituency, homeless, vulnerable, missing, displaced, or otherwise at risk, that MP cannot safely assume this is "someone else's case." Safeguarding is location-sensitive as well as constituency-sensitive. A disclosure concerning a vulnerable person potentially present in an MP's constituency should be recorded or referred, not dismissed.

As Surrey Police are assessing whether Emily Newbold's missing status is connected to Epstein-related safeguarding concerns, then every recipient has been notified of a potentially serious child/vulnerable-person safeguarding matter. Parliamentary constituency protocol cannot override the need to record, refer, or pass on a safeguarding disclosure to the proper authority.

Where Surrey Police are assessing whether Emily Newbold's missing status engages Epstein-related safeguarding concerns, every recipient has now been notified of a potentially serious safeguarding matter. Parliamentary constituency protocol cannot override the need to record, refer, or pass on a safeguarding disclosure to the proper authority.

Where a missing/vulnerable person may be present in any constituency, or may fall within a wider police safeguarding assessment, no MP office can safely dismiss the disclosure as "not my constituent" without first considering referral.

This is the result of my local constituency enquiry.

Local Constituency Enquiry Result

After years of correspondence, the position remains that NHS records could not locate Emily Newbold through the normal route available to them.This NHS correspondence is the result of my local constituency enquiry. It shows that the ordinary constituency route has already been used and did not resolve the safeguarding/records issue concerning Emily Newbold.

That is why this matter is now being placed before police, MPs, Parliament, and relevant oversight bodies as a safeguarding disclosure rather than ordinary constituency casework.

I require:

• Immediate acknowledgement of receipt;
• A Professional Standards reference number;
• Identification of the officer or department assigned to this matter;
• Confirmation that safeguarding concerns have been formally logged; and
• A timeline for initial assessment and response.

Please confirm:

the police reference number for this matter;
whether Emily Newbold has been recorded as a missing/vulnerable person or safeguarding concern;
which officer, team, or department is responsible for assessment;
whether any THRIVE/THRIVE+ or vulnerability assessment has been completed;
whether the matter has been referred to Professional Standards;
the reason for any decision not to investigate, refer, or take safeguarding action.

This is a formal safeguarding and audit-trail preservation request. Please preserve all notes, routing decisions, risk assessments, supervisory reviews, case-management entries, and reasons for any no-further-action decision.

Members of Parliament have now been formally notified of these safeguarding concerns and the chronology surrounding them. The documentary trail, correspondence history, and evidence record are preserved.

No misunderstanding can now exist that these matters have been formally raised.

Police Risk Assessment and Safeguarding Triage

I request confirmation that this correspondence has been assessed under any applicable police vulnerability, safeguarding, missing-person, and THRIVE / THRIVE+ assessment frameworks.

For the avoidance of doubt, I request preservation of:

• Any THRIVE / THRIVE+ assessment;
• Threat, Harm, Risk, Investigation, Vulnerability and Engagement considerations;
• Vulnerability assessments;
• Safeguarding referrals;
• Missing-person assessments;
• Risk-grading decisions;
• Incident grading decisions;
• Professional Standards referrals;
• Supervisory reviews; and
• The rationale for any decision not to investigate, refer, record, or take safeguarding action.

If any assessment has determined that no further action is required, I request that the decision-making rationale, reviewing officer, and date of review are recorded and preserved.

I look forward to your urgent response.

MP statements claiming inability to help

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

FOIA 2026-0609-F / 2025-1058-F

I have asked you for your personal indemnity insurance which is presumably with Zurich plese provide correct indemnity insurance.

Helena Dollimore for Hastings and Rye stated in an open letter on social media "It is the most basic duty of any administration to protect society's most vulnerable children. " Please explain why this principle is not being reflected in your response and why, rather than addressing the safeguarding matter raised, you have chosen to rely on procedural excuses for not dealing with it..Please explain why my correspondence has not been registered and referred to the appropriate Department for Education complaints or safeguarding team, and identify who made the decision not to do so.

I identified that when you actas the MP for your specific constiuency, parliamentary convention normally prevents you from taking over another MP's individual constituency casework. The House of Commons Library describes this as a convention of constituency etiquette, under which constituents ordinarily approach their own MP. It is not a general Act of Parliament prohibiting all contact from people outside her constituency.

However, I contacted you in your separate capacity as MP and minister. That is a national ministerial office. The official description says you are responsible for contacting the the Department for Education's, including children's social care. A constituency boundary does not prevent the Department from receiving a complaint from a member of the public elsewhere in England.

The DfE publishes a national complaints procedure. It says complaints about the Department are referred to an appropriate staff member for investigation and should normally receive a response within 15 working days. It also expressly says that a complaint about government policy may be directed to the minister responsible for that policy.

I acknowledge the parliamentary convention that an MP ordinarily undertakes individual constituency casework only for their own constituents. However, I did not approach you for constituency representation. I contacted you in your national ministerial capacity as Secretary of State for Education and submitted a formal complaint concerning the Department for Education.

Please identify the precise parliamentary rule or statutory provision upon which you rely. If your response concerns only your capacity as MP for Manchester Central, please confirm that my correspondence has nevertheless been registered and referred to the Department for Education's Ministerial and Public Communications Division under its published complaints procedure.

Please provide the complaint reference number, the name or position of the official responsible for considering it, and the date by which I will receive a substantive response.

"Convention of constituency etiquette" means an accepted parliamentary custom or courtesy, rather than an Act of Parliament or a formally enforceable parliamentary rule.

You describe this as "strict Parliamentary protocol." Please identify the exact Standing Order, statutory provision or formal rule upon which you rely. The House of Commons Library states that constituency etiquette is a convention and is not the subject of formal parliamentary rules. I did not approach you for representation as my constituency MP; I contacted you in your national capacity as Secretary of State for Education. Please therefore refer my correspondence to the appropriate Department for Education complaints or safeguarding team and provide a reference number.

The Right Hon Lucy Powell secretary of State for Education you have failed to provide evidence that my daughter, Emily Newbold, is alive, safe, and not deceased. In the absence of any clear welfare confirmation, safeguarding record, lawful disclosure, or accountable explanation, I require Social Work England to treat this as an urgent safeguarding and professional-regulation matter. Answer me straight, is she dead, ended or alive?

The breaches engaged include, but are not limited to:

Article 12 UK GDPR – failure to act transparently and within statutory time limits

Article 15 UK GDPR – failure to provide access to personal data

Article 5(1)(a) UK GDPR – lack of lawfulness, fairness, and transparency **

About Emily - https://stealingofemily.world/about/

Hello, yes, this is Martin Newbold. I'm calling and writing about the welfare of my daughter Emily , but you have refused to provide information and say that you're not reading my emails and that you can't answer a matter of safeguarding due to parliamentary privilege when I have not contacted you as an MP.

That's forced me to call you and to note that you don't answer your phone calls either.You are supposed to be the...You are supposed to be the current Secretary of State for Education. Can you also tell me why? The Department of Education is telling me that I'm not there yet when I asked them for information about my daughter Who was supposed to be in Northern Ireland, which she's not according to social workers andEffectively according to a video I have on my website is supposed to be there until she's 25There clearly someone needs to tell me where my daughter is and her correct location of where she actually is. As you are now the Department of Education Secretary of State, I expect a proper I expect a proper answer from you. Otherwise I shall conclude that you're no better than the person that was in your previous seat and publicly humiliate you. Can you please make sure that doesn't happen and can you please make sure that you provide me a proper answer and one that would actually help the rest of my family have some dialogue with my daughter. As she is supposed to be part of a safeguarding situation, social workers should have known where she is. As you are the Department of Education and you empower social workers, you should be able to actually inform me where she is. able to actually inform me where she is. As she is in education, you should be able to inform me where she is. As the Department of Health tells me she no longer has a NHS record, I am deeply concerned and this has been reported to the Surrey Police in regard to Andrew and disappearing children. Now clearly I expect some answers so can you please give me some indication of when you can get those answers to me can you tell me what you mean by the Department of Education saying "I haven't got there yet" and can you please provide an answer you can email me at You can email me at martinnewbold.mn at gmail.com You can go on my website and you can send a message on those as well. I look forward to hearing from you. I hope this is a meaningful conversation I'm going to have with you and will result in the location of my daughter Emily thank you very much for your time I appreciate it.

I Martin Newbold of sound mind and I identify as a victim of Gary Paul Daniels.

The applicant, Mr. Martin Peter Newbold, has filed an urgent appeal to the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) alleging violations of Articles 6, 8, and 14 of the Human Rights Act, as well as breaches of Estoppel. His request stems from a long-standing legal battle involving East Sussex County Council and the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO), where the family contends that their rights and agreements have been ignored by local authorities. Mr. Newbold is seeking the immediate return of his child, Emily, who he believes is in imminent danger due to the failure of social services and the courts to ensure her safety. He has requested the issuance of a Writ of Attachment and Writ of Habeas Corpus to compel the return of his child and to ensure her medical, forensic, and safeguarding needs are addressed.

False Genogram Submitted to the Court

I also draw the Court’s attention to the submission of a genogram that was materially inaccurate, and which did not correctly represent the family relationships concerned.

That genogram was relied upon within proceedings and affected at least three families, including my own. The inaccuracies were not peripheral; they went to the core depiction of familial relationships and therefore had the potential to influence assessments, recommendations, and judicial decision-making.

Three families have suffered immeasurably due to the actions of Judge Hollis, whose decisions remain uninvestigated despite clear indications of criminal misconduct. During the Hastings court proceedings, social worker Christine Elizabeth Stirling presented genealogical information that was not only inaccurate but appeared deliberately constructed to mislead the court and support her own agenda.

The key issue lies in the genogram itself. The document titled “Genogram_re_Lauren’s_family_19_08_10”, prepared by Charlotte Bell for East Sussex County Council, contains fundamentally incorrect information. It incorrectly identifies Emily's sister Lauren’s father, when in reality, her father is David Cunningham, and her full name is Lauren Anne Cunningham. Despite this clear and crucial error, the same misleading information was presented during court proceedings. This raises serious questions: why was this false narrative allowed to stand, and who was accountable for presenting this incorrect data in such a critical legal setting?

I previously telephoned your office as a victim of the actions of Gary Daniels and East Sussex County Council, who have been unable to inform me of the whereabouts of my daughter, Emily Newbold-Smith, date of birth 30/10/206. I have repeatedly asked for DNA evidence and supporting records from those who have, in my view, misled me.

Emily, has been missing for 19 years after being removed by East Sussex Social services from her mother at age 4. The NHS and my GP surgery have both confirmed in writing that they cannot locate her on their systems. When the Department for Education responded via the Parliamentary & Health Service Ombudsman, C-205-8682 and C-205 -9461 they relied on data from Gary Daniels’ ePEP system and stated that Emily was attending a boys’ school in Tunbridge Wells — which is clearly impossible.

I allege that Gary Paul Daniels and related companies — E-Care Solutions Limited, E-Gov Digital Limited, and E-Gov Solutions Limited — obtained council money through false representations, while operating an education/care database used for vulnerable children.
I said the database, described as EPEP / electronic personal education plan, held sensitive data on looked-after and disabled children, but lacked proper accreditation, due diligence, and oversight.
I also alleged councils, the ICO, and other bodies were failing to act, and described that as a wider cover-up / corruption issue.

My ICO complaint concerns eGov Digital Ltd and was received on 26.02.2026 under reference number IC-485683-M0X9.
The documents I rely upon indicate a wider pattern of serious concern, including:

inadequate security measures, including shared credentials, absence of multi-factor authentication, and no independent audits;
apparent breaches of UK GDPR Articles 5, 28, 32 and 35;
non-compliance with the Children’s Code and NHS DSPT requirements;
misleading ISO 27001 claims made on the G-Cloud framework; historic trading activity through dormant companies while handling children’s data; and systemic safeguarding failures affecting vulnerable children.
The cross-border arrangement I am referring to is the UK GDPR international transfer regime, not a “shared GDPR compliance agreement” by that name.

“the UK GDPR international data transfer arrangements with other countries”

The mechanism more exactly:

For transfers to EEA countries such as Finland: the transfer is usually allowed under UK adequacy regulations, so there is not normally a separate special agreement to name as breached just because the data is in Finland. The ICO says the UK has adequacy regulations covering transfers to EEA countries, so data can flow without extra safeguards like SCCs or an IDTA.
For transfers to non-EEA countries: the relevant transfer instrument would usually be the International Data Transfer Agreement (IDTA) or the UK Addendum to Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs).

My own document supports the same point: UK → Finland hosting is described there as lawful in principle, and the real issue is alleged failure of safeguards, transparency, and response to access requests, not the mere fact of Finland hosting.

An adequacy decision does not give a free pass to transfer or process data about vulnerable children. It only addresses one part of the analysis: whether the destination country is recognised as providing an adequate level of protection for transfer purposes under Article 45. It does not remove the need for a lawful basis, an Article 9 condition for special category data, transparency, necessity, proportionality, security, and child-specific safeguards under the UK GDPR and the ICO's children's guidance.

"I allege a breach of the UK GDPR rules governing international transfers of personal data to other countries, together with failures of Companies House records show a pattern of multiple eGOV-branded companies, including one dissolved by voluntary strike-off, one currently showing overdue accounts and an active strike-off proposal, and another using two variants of the same officer name within the company record.

EGOV SYSTEMS LIMITED (04915551) was struck off.

Its Companies House filing history shows:

20 Dec 2012 — application to strike the company off the register,
08 Jan 2013 — first Gazette notice for voluntary strike-off,
23 Apr 2013 — final Gazette dissolved via voluntary strike-off.
So you now have three separate points you can state factually:

EGOV SOLUTIONS LTD (11651414) is active and files accounts.
EGOV LIMITED (11289853) is active, has an active proposal to strike off, and shows accounts overdue for accounts due 31 Jan 2026.
EGOV SYSTEMS LIMITED (04915551) was voluntarily struck off and dissolved in 2013.
And for EGOV DIGITAL LIMITED (08945929), the officers page does show Gary Daniels as Secretary and Gary Paul Daniels as Director, both appointed on 19 March 2014, using the same correspondence address, which is why it reads like the same individual under two name variants.

If the £38,000 per authority figure is in FOI responses, then that is the figure to use, and it is stronger than brochures or generic marketplace pricing. In the searches I ran just now, I found WhatDoTheyKnow material referring to eGov/ePEP contracts in that rough range, including a request that cites an approximately £77,000 eGov Solutions contract around 2024 and another that cites an approximately £113,959 over an initial two-year term ePEP-related contract. I also found a successful Sheffield FOI where the council disclosed a current ePEP/attendance contract worth £75,114 ex VAT in total, although that one names a different supplier.

Direct engagement with Gary Daniels has now been exhausted. The matter will proceed on the basis of documentary contradictions, witness material, procurement records, Companies House history, and the absence of adequate GDPR/safeguarding scrutiny. Any continued failure by the ICO or public bodies to engage will itself be relied upon in further submissions.

MP GDPR correspondence — 28 July 2026

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

"This Data Subject Access Request includes any personal data relating to me held within correspondence-triage systems, case-management systems, workflow systems, AI-assisted correspondence processing, audit logs, routing records, classification records, escalation histories, and associated metadata."

I am making a formal Data Subject Access Request under Article 15 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Please provide copies of all personal data that you, your office, or any processors acting on your behalf hold relating to me in any format, including but not limited to:

All emails (sent, received, archived, deleted where retained, and draft emails).
Correspondence relating to me.
Case management and CRM records.
Telephone logs, call notes and message records.

Meeting notes, diary entries and appointment records.
Internal memoranda, file notes and handwritten notes.
Attachments containing my personal data.
Records held within document management systems, databases and electronic filing systems.
Metadata associated with my personal data where it forms part of my personal data.
Records shared with, or received from, third parties concerning me.
Any records held by staff acting on your behalf.

In addition, pursuant to Article 15 UK GDPR, please provide:

Confirmation as to whether my personal data is being processed.
The purposes of the processing.
The categories of personal data concerned.
The recipients or categories of recipients to whom my personal data has been disclosed or will be disclosed.
Where possible, the envisaged retention period for the personal data, or the criteria used to determine that period.
The source of the personal data where it was not obtained directly from me.
Information concerning any automated decision-making or profiling relating to my personal data.

I request that the information be provided electronically.

If you require any additional information to identify my records, please let me know as soon as possible. Otherwise, I expect the request to be processed within the statutory time limits prescribed by the UK GDPR.

My identity can be verified using the attached copy of my driving licence. If further verification is required, I also have a verified identity through the Persona identity verification service associated with my LinkedIn profile:
https://www.linkedin.com/in/martin-newbold-author-39364612b/

I am willing to complete any reasonable identity verification process you require. I can also authenticate using Google Authenticator, which is already registered with EHCR and Stripe.
Please acknowledge receipt of this request.

Safeguarding concern and parliamentary responses

The correspondence records responses in which MPs or their offices relied on parliamentary privilege, constituency convention or parliamentary procedure instead of answering the safeguarding question.

The correspondence states that Emily Newbold has been described as being in education, while the Department for Education has not identified her educational establishment, current placement, safeguarding status or location to Martin Newbold. Whether Emily is treated as a child or an adult, the unresolved questions remain: where is she, who is responsible for her welfare, and which public authority can confirm that she is safe and genuinely registered in education?

UK Parliament's own procedure guide states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence with constituents or ministers. For a child, section 47 of the Children Act 1989 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal test is met. For an adult, section 42 of the Care Act 2014 provides the safeguarding-enquiry route where its legal conditions are met. These are national safeguarding questions and cannot be answered merely by citing privilege or constituency convention.

I am submitting a formal complaint concerning the repeated use by Members of Parliament and their offices of the following statement:

“There is a strict protocol that Members of Parliament only provide assistance to their own constituents.”

This statement has been used in responses to safeguarding correspondence sent to approximately 640 MPs concerning my daughter, Emily Newbold.

This complaint is not based merely upon dissatisfaction with individual MPs declining to undertake constituency casework. It concerns the widespread representation of a parliamentary convention as though it were a strict, binding and formally established parliamentary rule.

Despite requests for the authority behind the statement, I have not been provided with any Standing Order, statutory provision, rule within the House of Commons Code of Conduct or other formal parliamentary rule establishing the claimed prohibition.

The House of Commons Library briefing entitled “MPs and constituency etiquette” states:

“The conventions dealing with these matters are not the subject of formal parliamentary rules.”

The briefing is available at:

https://commonslibrary.parliament.uk/research-briefings/sn02028/

The briefing describes a convention under which MPs generally deal with personal enquiries from their own constituents. It does not identify a formal rule absolutely prohibiting an MP from:

reading safeguarding information received from a non-constituent;
recording that information;
referring it to the appropriate MP, Minister or safeguarding authority; acknowledging a matter of wider national concern; or ensuring that serious safeguarding information reaches an appropriate person.

The Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards’ own frequently asked questions state:

“Most MPs observe the protocol which says they will not take up issues on behalf of people who are not their constituents.”

That guidance is available at:

https://www.parliament.uk/mps-lords-and-offices/standards-and-financial-interests/parliamentary-commissioner-for-standards/parliamentary-commissioner-for-standards/faqs/

The words “most MPs observe” describe a convention or customary practice. They do not establish a strict rule applying without exception to every MP.

The concern is therefore that MPs and their staff have repeatedly presented this convention as a binding parliamentary prohibition, without identifying its source, status, wording or limitations.

The substantially similar responses received from numerous parliamentary offices indicate that this may be a systemic practice or the result of commonly circulated guidance or template wording.

The repeated use of this claim has prevented proper scrutiny of how serious safeguarding correspondence was handled. The responses generally do not establish:

Whether the safeguarding information was read and considered.
Whether any safeguarding assessment was undertaken.
Whether the information was recorded within the MP’s case-management system.
Whether it was forwarded to my constituency MP, a relevant Minister, the Department for Education, the police, a local authority or another safeguarding body.
Whether any action was taken to ensure continuity of responsibility after the MP declined to undertake the matter personally.
Whether the phrase “strict protocol” originated from official parliamentary guidance, a political party, an individual MP or an independently produced office template.

Rule 11 of the current House of Commons Code of Conduct states:

“Members shall never undertake any action which would cause significant damage to the reputation and integrity of the House of Commons as a whole, or of its Members generally.”

The Code is available at:

https://publications.parliament.uk/pa/cm5803/cmcode/1083/1083.pdf

I ask the Commissioner to consider whether the repeated and widespread presentation of a non-binding convention as a strict parliamentary rule is capable of engaging Rule 11, particularly where the statement has been used to close safeguarding correspondence without transparent assessment or referral.

A practice in which a substantial number of MPs rely upon the same unsupported assertion risks damaging public confidence in the honesty, openness and accountability of the House of Commons and its Members generally.

I therefore request that the Commissioner:

Confirm the precise status and source of the constituency protocol relied upon by MPs.
Confirm whether there is any formal parliamentary rule prohibiting an MP from receiving, considering, recording or referring safeguarding information received from a non-constituent.
Examine whether describing the convention as a “strict protocol” materially misrepresents its parliamentary status.
Establish whether this wording originates from official parliamentary guidance, political-party guidance or a commonly distributed response template.
Consider whether its widespread use to dispose of safeguarding correspondence is capable of breaching Rule 11 of the Code of Conduct.
Confirm whether the matter may be considered as a systemic complaint supported by a schedule of responses or whether a separate allegation must be submitted in respect of each named MP.
Identify the appropriate parliamentary body or procedure if the systemic element of this complaint falls outside the Commissioner’s investigative jurisdiction.

I understand that the Commissioner does not ordinarily investigate complaints solely about how an MP has handled an individual case. However, this complaint concerns the alleged widespread misrepresentation of parliamentary rules and its potential effect upon the reputation and integrity of the House as a whole.

I can provide a numbered evidence schedule containing:

the names of the MPs and parliamentary offices contacted;
the dates on which correspondence was sent;
delivery and transmission records;
the replies received;
the precise wording used in each reply;
requests made for the alleged rule or protocol;
responses to those requests; and examples showing whether safeguarding information was referred elsewhere.

Please treat this correspondence as a formal allegation under Rule 11 and as a request for a written determination of the appropriate route through which this systemic matter should be examined.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Newbold

[86.00 - 92.36] I am writing in a formal allegation under section D, rules 11 and 2 of the House of [92.36 - 98.92] Commons Code of Conduct. I've already sent you a great deal of correspondence which I
[98.92 - 105.76] have tried to send further communication asking you for a reference number which has come
[105.76 - 125.12] up with a 550 undeliverable mail this is reference f77 nfy au pk iudmwm cuo vwa.uk403
[125.12 - 153.10] On the 30th July 2006 at approximately 9.36pm I sent a letter to the [129.00 - 137.16] I sent a substantial complaint published to an email address which was your email address you
[137.16 - 150.38] then have physically reduced that to a failure and I have already sent a big evidence packet
[150.38 - 163.34] to you in regard to 604 MPs who are not complying with the Acts and the rules in my allegation
[163.34 - 171.66] under section D rules 11 and 2 of the House of Commons Code of Conduct. Clearly the provisions [171.66 - 173.98] relied on the primary allegation.

[172.00 - 178.56] on the primary allegation section D rule 11. Rule 11 provides that members must [178.56 - 183.44] not undertake action causing significant damage to the regulation and integrity [183.44 - 189.04] of the House of Commons as a whole or its members generally. I recognize that [189.04 - 194.68] ordinary satisfaction with MPs casework correspondence or decision not to [194.68 - 201.44] assist would be ordinarily fall within the Commissioners jurisdiction. This [201.44 - 206.00] This submission concerns something materially wider.
[206.00 - 210.92] It concerns the documented pattern which MPs and Parliamentary Officers have ride upon [210.92 - 216.58] up to express including Parliamentary Privilege, strict Parliamentary Protocol, Parliamentary [216.58 - 218.58] roll.
[215.00 - 223.00] protocol, parliamentary rule and constituency rules and constituency convention, as reasons
[223.00 - 229.54] for declining to address, refer, properly signposts and resolve safeguarding and traceability
[229.54 - 233.10] concerns involving Emily Newbold.
[233.10 - 238.34] It is numbered instances these expressions have been presented as through their amount
[238.34 - 245.10] through legislation and formal prohibited however. Parliamentary own procedure guidance
[245.10 - 249.78] states that parliamentary privilege does not apply to correspondence which constituents
[249.78 - 256.22] or ministers and the House of Commons library states that constituent etiquette conventions [256.22 - 259.98] are not formally parliamentary rules.
[258.00 - 263.92] rules. Despite the request I have not been provided with the provides act of [263.92 - 269.68] Parliament or standing order resolution of the House code provision and or other
[269.68 - 274.92] formal authority said to prohibit an MP from receiving safeguarding information [274.92 - 280.52] acknowledging it referring it to a responsible authority or providing [280.52 - 286.68] accurate safeguarding signposting. I alleged that widespread representation of [286.68 - 289.20] convention as legal and parliamentary [289.20 - 292.82] prohibition particularly in response to [292.82 - 295.34] unresolved safeguarding concern is [295.34 - 297.94] capable of causing significant damage to [297.94 - 300.02] the public confidence and integrate [300.02 - 302.50] integrity of the House and its members
[302.50 - 305.02] general
[301.00 - 309.80] the House and its members generally. Alternatively, on additional allegation section D, rule 2, [309.80 - 316.36] rule 2 requires members to base their conduct on the consideration of the public interest.
[317.40 - 322.76] The evidence raises the question of whether the public interest was properly considered when [322.76 - 328.28] parliamentary offices relied on procedural explanations instead of addressing or referring [328.28 - 333.64] the following unanswered questions. Where is Emily Newbold? Which education

[333.64 -   339.36] establishment is she attending? Which authority is responsible for her welfare?
[339.36 -   346.04] What is her safeguarding status? Through which education
[344.00 -   352.64] health or care system can she presently be traced? This or the safeguarding concern began [352.64 -   358.24] when Emily was a child. The fact that she may now be treated in an as-aul does not represent [358.24 -   363.80] or representively resolve the safeguarding failures and answer the continuing questions
[363.80 -   368.88] about her location, welfare and traceability. I therefore ask the Commissioner to consider [368.88 -   374.00] rule 2 alongside rule 11 with the evidence demonstrates conduct an [374.00 -   378.80] identified member rather than merely decision by an office not to undertake [378.80 -   385.04] ordinary constituency casework. I rely on evidence which I have supplied to you I
[385.04 -   390.88] rely on the information which you have denied
[387.00 -   394.36] information which you have denied to have received and clearly I am expecting [394.36 -   399.48] you to provide me with a reference number in which you will be investigating [399.48 -   404.96] this complaint. Thank you very much for your time I appreciate it.
