Dear Ms Lloyd

I was rather amazed to read your report and the information it contained and agree a meeting might be in order to discuss the content. I found some information factually incorrect and would like to make an appointment to go through this. I should also inform you that prior to our meeting in Battle I took the liberty of taking pictures of my house in case that i needed to refer to them some eighteen in total. In your report you called this house untidy and I can provide them to you and ask for some explanation, When you said its was clean and tidy when you was there. Furthermore it is not clear from this report whether you compiled the report yourself or this was done by another party. I was also surprised to see that this Parenting Assessment seems not just to be a Parenting Assessment of my parenting skills and seems to rely also on hearsay from others.

I would be grateful if you could clarify who wrote this report and compiled it. I would like you to comment on the attached pictures. I would like you to make an appointment so that this may be discussed.

Kindest Regards

Martin Newbold

 Subject: Care Proceedings missing files

Dear Ms Loyd
 Action for Children,

I am writing to you with the attached files that you said you would like to see in today's meeting. I would be grateful if you could write back and inform me whether you have seen these documents before as part of your court bundle that was sent to you. In the light that these are new documents I would be grateful if you would include them in your assessment process.

I would be grateful if it would be possible for me to write in the future should i consider some thing of interest to you.

Yours Faithfully
